FORM A CYCLE CLUB

Enthusiasts of the Wheel Have a New Organization.

UNIQUE HEADQUARTERS PLANNED.

Officers Chosen and a Membership of About Twenty-five to Start With the Boys Are Well Pleased With the Encouraging Outlook.

The Island City Cycle club was formally organized at a well attended meeting of wheelmen at M. O. Griswold & Co's. office on Second avenue last evening and the following officers for the ensuing year chosen:

President—James Hutchings.
Vice President—Luke Hemenway.
Secretary—C. J. Miller.
Treasurer—George Sutcliffe.
Captain—W. Smith.
Lieutenant—Henry Holdorf.
Quartermaster—Harry Laffer.
Board of Directors—W. Kilmer, Jacob Kruse, S. S. Hull, Henry Simon, Jr., C. B. Kendall and A. L. Fletcher.

Beginning with a membership of about twenty-five the boys composing it think the prospects for a large and prosperous organization are encouraging. The next move is the selection of headquarters, and several locations are at present under consideration. It is the intention to do everything right and with an up-to-date ring to it. So with this idea foremost, the boys are looking around for a nice residence which they propose converting into club rooms, and furnishing in an elegant style. Bath room attachments are among the things required by the club. The club will keep its charter open for a few weeks, and a large membership is expected.

RUBY ALLOWED DAMAGES.

Wins His Suit Against the Moline Central Railway.

Hiram Ruby was given a verdict for $325 in his suit against the Moline Central Street Railway company by a jury in the circuit court yesterday afternoon.

The amount sued for was $2,000. Mr. Ruby is a resident of Coal Valley and represented that in a collision between one of the company's cars and a conveyance in which he was riding, he sustained injuries from which he never recovered. The case occupied several days in court.

A Worthless Musician.

People who had occasion to witness the musical entertainment furnished about the prominent thoroughfares yesterday by a middle-aged man, assisted by two little girls, were aroused to a sense of indignation that such an individual should be permitted to pose in the guise of an alms-taker. There is no doubting the fact but what many of the people who follow this line of business have no other means of gaining a livelihood owing to infirmities of some nature and are deserving of the public's sympathies, but when an able-bodied, well-looking man, such as he who paraded the streets yesterday, makes his appearance and attempts to strengthen his appeal for assistance by carrying around two little children and loving them to sing while he stands lazily by and works an accordion, then it is time to license the street musician.

Do Not Do This.

Do not be induced to buy any other if you have made up your mind to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Remember that Hood's Sarsaparilla cures when all other fail. Do not give up in despair because other medicines have failed to help you. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and you may reasonably expect to be cured.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25 cents.

Happy are those that knowing in their birth they are subject to uncertain changes are still prepared and armed for either fortune. A rare principle and with much labor learned in wisdom's school.—Manning.

AUSTIN CORBIN'S CAREER.

The Great Railroad Magnate Formerly of the Tet Cities.

Austin Corbin, the millionaire railroad magnate killed at Newport yesterday by being thrown from his carriage, was a former resident of Davenport, and in the old times was well known in this city. He was born in New Hampshire and came west and located at Davenport in 1851. Here he at once commenced the practice of his profession and soon appreciated the vast but undeveloped resources of the state, which only needed the influx of capital from the older states to quicken the marvelous growth which he foresaw. With characteristic promptness he left his law business to the care of his partner, and with Louis A. Macleot entered into the banking business in Davenport. Mr. Corbin's acquaintance and standing with financial men in New England enabled him to command a steady and ever increasing stream of gold to meet and supply the demand created by these opportunities. The panic of 1857 came upon the country, and save Mr. Corbin's, every banking house in Davenport succumbed to the storm of bankruptcy. Upon the passage of the national banking and currency act of 1863 Mr. Corbin, though located far distant from the financial centers of the country, was among the first to apply for a charter under that act. He organized and became the president of the First National bank of Davenport, which opened its doors for business June 29, 1863,—the first in the country, the second being the First National bank of Philadelphia, which commenced business two days afterward July 1. Ripened by the experience and vicissitudes of his life in the west Mr. Corbin in 1865 decided to leave Davenport, and to establish himself in New York City.

SELLE-RANGE NUPTIALS.

Freepost Gentlemen Were the Head of a Rock Island Lady.

Ernst Selle and Miss Lydia E. Range were the principals in a simple home wedding which occurred yesterday at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ernestine Range, 1111 Third avenue.

The groom is a son of Ernst L. Selle, principal of the German Lutheran school on Twentieth street, and is one of the instructors in the German Lutheran school at Freeport, where he has been the past two years. He has a host of acquaintances in Rock Island, while his bride, who has for some time been a member of the Lutheran church choir and one of the active workers in the congregation, is popular among our young people. The ceremony was performed by Prof. C. A. T. Selle, grandfather of the groom. The couple left on an afternoon train for their future home at Freeport.

River Rapids.

The Robert Dodds brought down 16 strings of logs.

Boats up were the J. W. Van Sant, Robert Dodds, Minnie Hanson, Zalus Davis, Jo Long and Sidney.

The river is falling at all points along the stream save at St. Louis, where a rise of 0.2 is reported.

The stage of water at the Rock Island bridge this morning was 10:00 and falling; the temperature, 88.

The Sidney brought the wrecked Pittsburg as far as Keokuk, where it will have its machinery repaired before being taken to Dubuque.

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison, of the Worthington, Ind., Sun, writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for constipation and sick headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2625 Cottage Grove avenue, Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Price 50 cents and $1. Get a bottle at Hart's & Ulmeyer's drug store.
